A Prayer for Holy Week

You had set Your face to Jerusalem knowing what waited You.
 Riding on a colt, You were hailed a king.
 You were welcomed with excitement and fanfare.
 The people waved palms and threw down their cloaks while shouting “Hosanna!”
 But the excitement and fanfare did not last.
 Before Your Passion, You taught and many listened with attentiveness.
 The same people soon turned against You.
 You spoke about God’s love for humankind and encouraged the people to love one another.
 But You were rejected and scorned.
 You shared one last meal with your disciples and friends.
 One betrayed You and another denied You.
 You were arrested and tried, though You had committed no crime.
 You were flogged and humiliated.
 The people were asked by Pontius Pilate to choose between You and the thief Barabbas.
 The people chose Barabbas.
 You were sentenced to die.
 You carried Your own cross.
 Like a common criminal, You were crucified at Golgotha.
 This Holy Week, guide us, Lord, to the foot of Your cross.
 Help us to remember that by Your grace and mercy we have been set free from sin.
 May we once again be overwhelmed by Your love for us that was put on full display on the cross.
 May it lead us to repentance once more.
 May our journey through Holy Week be blessed.
 May our hearts be made ready to receive the risen Christ anew on Easter Morning. Amen.
